

PROGRAM PROFILE

Tourism and Travel Management

Why Study This Program

Rwanda is one of Africa’s top tourism destinations. This program trains professionals to manage tour operations, travel agencies, and eco-tourism initiatives.

Why Study at MIPC

Our college’s location near Volcanoes National Park gives you direct exposure to tourism activities, field visits, and community-based tourism projects.

Future Careers

- Tour Guide / Tour Operator
- Travel Consultant
- Destination Manager
- Eco-Tourism Project Officer
- Conservation and Heritage Officer

Job Occupations & Opportunities

Employment in travel agencies, national parks, tourism boards, NGOs, and hotels — or launching your own travel company.

Partner Companies

- Rwanda Development Board (RDB) – Tourism and Conservation
- Volcanoes National Park
- Red Rocks Rwanda
- Amahoro Tours
- Dian Fossey Gorilla Fund

(Insert pictures: students guiding tourists, visiting parks, or in field trips)